Lewis S. Kahn

Lewis Kahn serves as the managing partner of KGS. Along with the representation of thousands of plaintiffs in class action and mass tort cases filed throughout the United States, Mr. Kahn has been appointed to various leadership positions in federal class action litigation. Among other prestigious appointments, Mr. Kahn served as a member of the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee in MDL 1481, In Re: Meridia Products Liability Litigation, appointed by Judge James S. Gwin in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio, Eastern District. Mr. Kahn also served as one of five plaintiffs' counsel that secured a $20.5 million securities fraud settlement in Lasky v. Brown, et al. (United Companies Securities Litigation), Case No. 99-1035-D-M2 (M.D. La.).

Mr. Kahn is often turned to by the media for expert commentary in the field of class action litigation. Mr. Kahn has been profiled in the New York Times, Washington Post, Boston Globe, and many other media outlets, and has provided expert commentary on CNNfn surrounding the Enron securities fraud class action litigation. Mr. Kahn holds a Bachelor's degree from New York University and received a Juris Doctor from Tulane Law School in 1994. He is a member in good standing of the Louisiana State Bar

Association since 1995, the American Association of Trial Lawyers, and the Federal Bars for the Eastern, Middle and Western Districts of Louisiana.

Michael A. Swick

Michael Swick heads KGS's Securities Litigation Group. Prior to joining KGS, Mr. Swick worked at several of the nation's leading securities class action law firms, including: both the East Coast and West Coast offices of Milberg Weiss Bershad Hynes & Lerach, LLP (now Lerach Coughlin Stoia Rudman Gellar & Robbins, LLP - CA, and Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman LLP - NYC), and the Connecticut firm of Scott + Scott, LLP.

Over the past decade of securities class action litigation, Mr. Swick has been instrumental in instituting litigation that has produced hundreds of millions of dollars of recoveries. Such actions include:

$140 Million Recovery. In re Sunbeam Securities Litigation, No. 98-8258 (S.D. Fla). Michael Swick drafted one of the first filed actions against Sunbeam, where plaintiffs alleged that Sunbeam, its auditor, and its management engaged in a massive accounting fraud, culminating in the restatement of over three years of previously reported financial results. The Court approved a combined settlement of over $140 million - - including $110 million paid by Arthur Andersen, LLP, then Sunbeam's auditor. In connection with this settlement, Albert Dunlap, Sunbeam's former Chairman and CEO, personally contributed $15 million.

$134 Million Recovery. In re Computer Associates Securities Litigation, Nos. 98-CV-4839, 02-CV-1226 (TCP) (E.D.N.Y.), Michael Swick drafted and participated in the filing of one of the earliest and most comprehensive actions. This filing later resulted in a pretrial settlement of securities fraud charges valued at over $134 million.

$600 Million Recovery. In re Lucent Technologies, Inc. Securities Litigation, No. 00cv621 (AJL) (D.N.J.). This settlement provided $600 million in compensation to aggrieved shareholders who purchased Lucent stock between Oct. 1999 and Dec. 2000.

Mr. Swick received a Juris Doctor from Tulane Law School in 1994. Further, Mr. Swick received a Masters of Political Philosophy from Columbia University in 1989 and a B.A. in Philosophy and Political Science from State University of New York at Albany in 1988. Mr. Swick was admitted to the state Bar of New York in 1996.

Kim E. Miller

Kim E. Miller is a partner of Kahn Gauthier Swick, LLC, and specializes in securities, consumer, and commercial class and derivative litigation. Prior to joining KGS in 2006, Ms. Miller was a partner of Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman LLP (“MWBS”) in New York City. While she spent most of her legal career at MWBS and its predecessor, Milberg Weiss Bershad Hynes & Lerach LLP, Ms. Miller also spent two years as a securities litigator on the defense side while at Gray Cary Ware & Friedenrich LLP in Palo Alto, California.

Over the course of her career, Ms. Miller has represented tens of thousands of wronged investors and consumers in class actions filed throughout the country. As a partner at MWBS, she acted as one of the lead counsel in more than 25 cases involving allegations of improper directed brokerage arrangements and excessive charges in mutual fund cases brought pursuant to the 1934 Securities Exchange Act and/or the Investment Company Act of 1940. Ms. Miller was also one of the MWBS partners involved in the mutual funds late trading/market timing litigation, in which MWBS served as Co-Chair of plaintiffs’ steering committee overseeing all class and derivative litigation involving more than 18 mutual fund families.

During her tenure at MWBS, Ms. Miller was involved in a variety of cases in which large settlements were reached, including Spahn v. Edward D. Jones & Co., L.P., 04-cv-00086-HEA (E.D. Mo.) (settlement value of $127.5M); In re StarLink Corn Products Liability Litigation, MDL No. 1403 (N.D. Ill.)(($110M recovery); and In re American Express Financial Advisors, Inc. Sec. Litig., 1:04-cv-01773-DAB (S.D.N.Y.)(($100M recovery). Ms. Miller was also a member of the successful trial team that obtained a federal jury verdict in favor of plaintiffs in a case involving the aiding and abetting of a mortgage company's fraudulent lending practices. Austin v. Lehman Commercial Paper, Inc., SA, CV 01-111 (DOC)(C.D. Cal.).

Ms. Miller graduated with honors from Stanford University in 1992 with a double major in English and Psychology. She earned her J.D. degree from Cornell Law School, cum laude, in 1995. While at Cornell, Ms. Miller was the Co-Chair of the Women's Law Symposium, Bench Brief Editor of the Moot Court Board, and a member of the Board of Editors of the Cornell Journal of Law & Public Policy. She is admitted to practice in the States of California and New York and before the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York and the Northern, Southern, and Central Districts of California.
